Evaluation: B-3

"...Baron Luigi PARRILLI, of unknown nationality, became famous in connection with the German surrender in the North in 1945. On 17 September 1949, after having paid out sizeable sums, he obtained, as an emergency measure, the nomination of San Marino's Extraordinary Envoy to Washington. Up to the present time, however, the American Consular Authorities in Italy have not authorized him to go to America, nor has the American Government assented to such a nomination. PARRILLI hopes to overcome the latter's refusal of an entrance visa to the United States by making use of diplomatic investiture. He has obtained the renewal of his credentials and passport, and on these occasions he has long meetings with the subversive leaders in San Marino. It appears that together with Baron LANNI DELLA CUARA and Doctor Boris LIPSCHITZ, he is involved in smuggling and in illicit traffic in the Switz-Italian area..."
